

Scholarship Winners

Two of Holy Spirit College's 2013 Graduates have an even greater reason to celebrate their acceptance into university this year, with the offer of a scholarship to assist with their tertiary education.

Brittany Vella, 2013 College Leader, has received a scholarship from the Winchester Foundation. The Winchester Foundation provides assistance to children and youth living in rural and regional areas with their education. Brittany will be studying a Bachelor of Speech Pathology at James Cook University and will receive assistance towards the study costs of her tertiary education.

Eka Setiyawan, 2013 Community Service Committee Chairperson, will be studying a Bachelor of Engineering at the University of Queensland. Eka has received a scholarship towards college fees for Emmanuel College at the University of Queensland.

Brittany and Eka and their respective families are very proud to have received these scholarships.

